To the recommender:

The Yale-China CCNU Guizishan Fellowship is an experimental initiative of the Yale-China Association and Central China Normal University (CCNU) that is intended to deepen understanding of China through collaboration and partnership. Guizishan Fellows will carry out an individualized program of inquiry in any field or area of interest; Fellows also teach a half-time course load at CCNU, with assigned classes to be determined by the backgrounds of the selected Fellows and needs at CCNU. More information can be found at www.yalechina.org/education/guizishan

We deeply appreciate your time in helping us gain a better understanding of the applicant. We ask that you please fill out the form below and write a letter that might serve as a portrait of the applicant scholastically, professionally, and personally. If the student waiver is not signed, please submit this reference form and your letter only if you are willing to allow the student to read both in their entirety.

Please mail your letter and this form to: Guizishan Fellowship Selection Committee, Yale-China Association, Box 208223, New Haven, CT 06520-8223 to be received by April 30, 2015 at 5:00 pm. Letters and forms may also be e-mailed to the Guizishan Fellowship Selection Committee at guizishan.selection@yalechina.org.

Questions about the Guizishan Fellowship should be directed to Leslie Stone at (203) 432-3866 or at <leslie.stone@yale.edu>.
